We are your Sicilian tour operator. Traditional tours of Sicily and so much more.

You don't go to a Sicilian village just to hike, sightsee or eat but to live an experience, a story. You are not going to meet tourists or visitors of famous places but travelers in search of emotions.

In Sicily, the wood oven has always been an important element of community, where moments of joy and sharing with friends and family are celebrated around it.

Driving a completely and meticulously restored Fiat 500 from the 70s, along the little streets of the historic city once described by Pindaro as the most beautiful among mortals.

Our own special way to visit a winery. Drive through the vineyard in a Fiat 500 and taste unique Sicilian wines.

The Valley of the Temples is one of the most fascinating and visited places on the island and one of the most important testimonies to the presence of ancient Greeks in southern Italy.

Spend a day with a young shepherd who has given up everything to carry on the family trade of four generations and visit to a small dairy where a mother and father dedicate each day to the production of cheese.

Discover the creative soul of Sicily through art and the aesthetic expression of artists of different eras.

Follow us into a magical place created by a unique cultural heritage, the house of the last great Carradore Master, Raffaele La Scala. His son Marcello will guide us among his father's works of art.

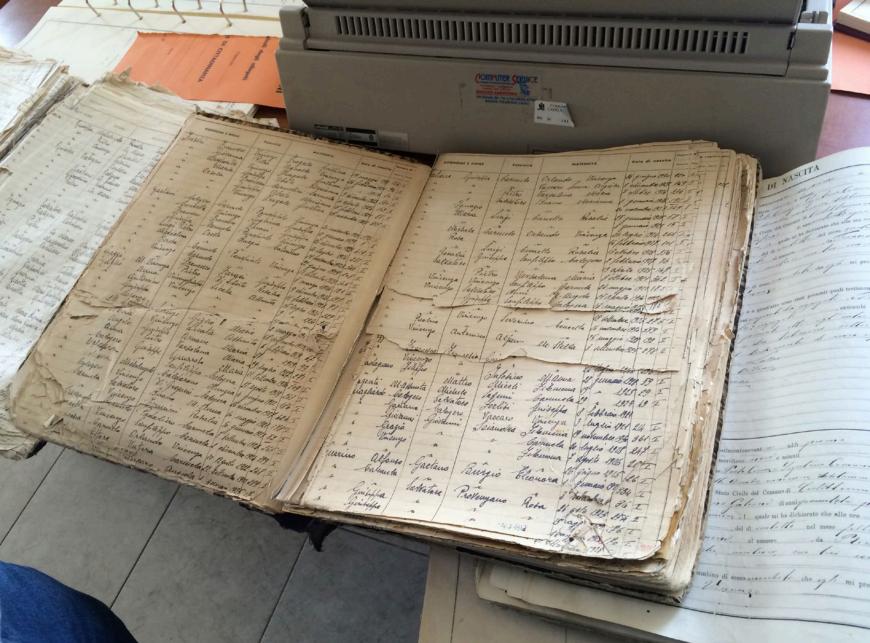

Find your roots in the heart of Sicily and meet that part of your family you've never met.

A journey dedicated to the ancient wheat of Sicily with its history extending over nine millennia, and its rediscovery in the fields, in preparation and on the table.

Girgentana goats are a native breed from the province of Agrigento that was at risk of extinction. Today from their milk curdled with vegetable rennet a company prepares different types of amazing cheeses.
